

We welcome all Ladies of all ages to join the Group.

Our aims and objectives are:

To support and encourage ladies in the local Community and to promote the Christian faith and its values amongst the members.

We welcome visitors who may attend up to two meetings free before then joining and paying a membership subscription.

Would you need a lift, especially on dark evenings? Please contact either of the numbers on the front page.

Know Jesus
Show His Love
Make Him Known

St. Augustine's Ladies Group Programme for 2020

We would love you to come and join this Ladies Group who meet on the third Tuesday of each month in the Lantern Room, which is attached to the side of the Church, Bucklesham Road from 7.30pm to 9.30pm for fun, fellowship and entertainment.

We aim for the programme to be a mix of:

- * Entertaining and Interesting Speakers
- * Friendly coffee and chat
- * Daytime and evening outings
- * Christmas meal

If this appeals to you and you wish for more details, please feel free to contact Kathie Scott ☎ 01473 710304

E Mail: katherine.scott3@ntlworld.com or

Ann Boxall

E Mail: Ann.boxall@staugustinesipswich.org.uk

January 21 Headway Suffolk.
Helen Fairweather, COE of Headway, will be speaking to us about the work of the organisation and their plans for the future.

July 21 My Life in Journalism.
Lynne Mortimer formerly from the East Anglian Daily Times and Ipswich Star will be here to talk about her life in Journalism.

August 18— to be confirmed.

February 18 A Royal Year.
Ken Stone will be here with us to give an illustrated insight into a Year with the House of Windsor.

September 15 Acupuncture.
Jo Banthorpe will be here to explain the benefits of a different form of treatment via Acupuncture.

OPEN UP March 17 Open Up.
Revd Jenny Haggart will be here to talk about the work of Open Up. Equipping Churches to support those impacted by domestic abuse.

October 20 Annual General Meeting followed by Coffee and Cake.

Time to reflect and elect!!

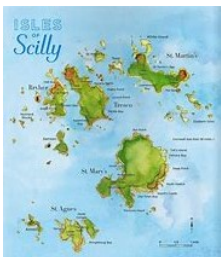

April 21 My Life.
Tim Holder—we welcome back Tim who will be coming to talk to us about his varied and exciting life.

May 19 Speed Painting.
Lois Cordelia - we welcome back Lois, a very talented, versatile public and community artist, illustrator, demonstrator and tutor. Her last visit showed her amazing skill at paper cutting; this time we look forward to speed painting.

November 17 East of England Co-operative Society.
Sarah Quinton will be here from the Funeral Service to help explain and dispel fears.

June 16 Isles of Scilly.
Mr Parfitt will be here to talk about the Isle of Scilly. An exploration of these lovely islands, flowers and wildlife and changing occupations.

December 8 A Christmas Celebration/Meal at Rushmere Golf Club. Our Annual Christmas Meal will be held at the Rushmere Golf Club. Booking essential.