St. Augustine's Weekend Away 2017

This weekend away will be an excellent opportunity to spend time together as a church; worshipping God, relaxing together, eating together - getting to know each other better and deepening our relationship with God.

We are delighted to announce that Bishop Sandy Millar will be leading two teaching sessions on the Saturday this year. Bishop Sandy was Vicar at Holy Trinity Brompton in London for 20 years, and widely credited as the principal person responsible for The Alpha course. He is also renowned for his work driving Church planting in London, breathing new life into dying churches. Sandy has a worldwide ministry frequently speaking in churches around the world. He is married to Annette, who will also be joining us on the Saturday. We will also be running parallel sessions for our children and youth and there will be crèche facilities for the under-3s.

There will be plenty of time to get some space and peace and quiet, with walks along the beach and in the gardens. We are still planning the catering and worship for this year, taking on board feedback received from last year - more to be announced soon.

We'll arrive from 5pm on the Friday afternoon, with plenty of time to settle in before dinner.

The weekend will be a mixture of teaching, worship, free time to explore the locality and make use of the sporting facilities and, of course, food! Sunday will include All Age Worship and Communion. We are hopeful Harry will put in an appearance, along with the Hungry Hippos!

If you are not able to join us for the whole weekend, why not consider coming for the day? Transport can be arranged.

If you have any questions, please talk to one of the planning team:
